THE button has been pressed; the order to the musicians has gone out; the edict for the festival of gaiety has been delivered and unsealed and the city of Oakland is ready for the welcoming and entertaining of the hundreds of thousands of guests who are pouring in from all sections of the state and who will make merry under the auspices of the local lodges of the Native Sons of the Golden West and the Native Daughters in the celebration of the 1913 Admission Day.

Already the early portions of the program have been taken up, and carried out in a manner that bespeaks unequalled success for the entire schedule of events. The band concerts which have been held in various portions of the city in the contest that is on for the best all-round musical aggregation of the order have attracted hundreds of people to the scene of the music and with tomorrow's entries in the contest it is certain that the opinion of the judges will mean the selection of one of the finest, if not the finest bands in the State of California as the winner in the Admission day celebration contest at 1082 Fifty-fourth street.

Mrs. Goldspring left Dixon this afternoon for Oakland with the remains. No funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

RECEPTION ALL DAY.

All through the day the various headquarters of the parlors of Native Sons and Daughters from all portions of the state have been busy preparing for their members. The general reception committee at the Hotel Oakland has held sway over a general welcoming that already indicates a record-breaking attendance to the celebration.

The big event of this afternoon was the historical pageant at Lake Merritt, in which over 400 school-children

OAKLANDER DROWNS WHILE SWIMMING

H. J. Goldspring Meets Death in Reservoir Near Dixon.

News was received here today of the death by drowning of Harry J. Goldspring of this city yesterday while swimming in a big irrigating reservoir on the ranch of C. O. Parkhurst. Several other men who were bathing with Goldspring attempted to save him, but their efforts proved ineffectual. Goldspring was spending a short vacation with his wife at the Parkhurst ranch. She is almost prostrated over the affair. Goldspring was 27 years of age and had been married but three years. The family residence is at 1082 Fifty-fourth street.

Mrs. Goldspring left Dixon this afternoon for Oakland with the remains. No funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

Gives Crying Child Poison by Mistake

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Left to guard his infant brother, Harry Klesky, 5 years old, last night, gave the crying child something out of a bottle to make it quiet just as he had seen his mother do. The baby fell into a deep sleep, from which it never awoke. The "little father" missed the paregoric bottle by an inch and administered wormwood.

AUTO 'RUNS AWAY,' DOES DAMAGE

Machine Dashes Down Street When Steering Gear Breaks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Breaking of the steering gear in a five-passenger automobile driven by William Ladd, 18, Seventh Avenue, "ran away" at 1:30 this morning, startling the residents of the neighborhood of Post and Filmore streets, and did considerable damage.

With Ladd in the car were Nell Duffy and J. S. Surdam, a wholesale grocer who held tightly to the seat and were powerless to prevent the heavy machine dashing down Post street. It broke off a fire hydrant in the front of the quarters of Truck No. 5, smashed a telegraph pole and jammed it into the plate glass window of a hotel at 1849 Post street. The residents believed that there was a fire, seeing water shooting high in the air, hurried out in their night apparel. The men aroused, turned on the water, and picked up the pieces of the wrecked machine.

Although counsel for the defendants has been working overtime on the motions for new trials and to complete the bills of exceptions, there is no likelihood that this work can be completed by Wednesday.

"We will very likely consent to the putting over of sentences until after the trial of Charles B. Hester and Maury I. Diggs on the conspiracy charges," declared Roche this morning. "This would postpone the hearing of judgment until next week."

"SHOULDN'T HAVE QUALIFIED."

When Roche was asked an opinion of the statements of "Hester, one of the jurors who voted to convict Caminetti, that he (Hester) was sorry that he had voted 'guilty' and mentioned that the question had

The Republicans are also holding primaries, but fewer contests and less interest attaches to their fight.

Democratic Primary Close in Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 8.—There is a warm Democratic primary fight on in this city today, the lines being closely drawn between the organization and the progressive forces. Control of the state convention and the party organization through the state central committee, besides some minor vice offices, is at issue.

The Republicans are also holding primaries, but fewer contests and less interest attaches to their fight.

CALIFORNIA

You ask me which my native State?

'Tis California, golden, great. With barrier coast a thousand miles, And ample width where might abide The millions of the British Isles. A state that can a dozen hide Of kingdoms. Where the seasons give The wealth on which a world may live.

DOMINICANS SHOOT; LIVES ENDANGERED

Puerto Plata in Hands of Rebels, Under Gun-boat Fire

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Puerto Plata, in the Dominican republic, where a revolution is in progress, is being shelled by Dominican gunboats, with great danger to American lives and property.

Jose M. Esteva, American vice-consul there, so reported today. The gunboat Des Moines is on the way there.

The Des Moines is at Guantamano today, sailing for the run to Puerto Plata, where she is due tomorrow.

Puerto Plata has been in the hands of the Dominican rebels ever since the latest revolution started with the announcement of the governor that the state had seceded from all allegiance to the central government.

The Des Moines is at Guantamano today, sailing for the run to Puerto Plata, where she is due tomorrow.

The supposed leader of the uprising is Victor Velasquez, one time pro-secutor of the republic. His lawyer advised him not to inform that any fighting had occurred.

So far the naval authorities here informed the Dominican navy consists of two or three converted yachts armed with six-pounders and machine guns. They could cause enough damage to an undivided town like Puerto Plata, especially if it is largely of wooden construction and might easily be set afire.

MAY FINISH DOCK AT PEARL HARBOR

Engineering Expert Reports That Collapsed Structure Can Be Completed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The big navy dock at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, which recently collapsed after the government had spent several million dollars in its construction, can be saved and finished according to the original design, in the opinion of Alfred Noble, an engineering expert who was sent to inspect it. Mr. Noble conferred today with Secretary Daniels, and will submit a detailed report with plans for completion of the work.

ASKS MOTT TO NAME
GOOD ROADS' DELEGATES

Mott of Oakland has been requested by Logan Waller Page, president of the American Road Congress and director of the United States Office of Public Roads, to name three delegates to attend the sessions of the Congress at Detroit during the week of September 29 as the representative of the city.

Twenty-eight great organizations are taking part in the congress, under the leadership of the American Highway Association and the American Automobile Association. In his letter to Mayor Mott, President Page calls attention to the fact that practically every State Highway Commissioner will be present and take part in discussing the important problems of road construction and maintenance, and that some of the foremost men in public life will devote their attention to the great question of national aid to road improvement in an endeavor to work out a policy which may be submitted to the Congress of the United States with the support of the organized road movement of America.

EXPECT SCIENTISTS TO ANNOUNCE DISCOVERIES

BIRMINGHAM, England, Sept. 8.—From September 10 to September 17 the annual meeting of the British Association will hold together here hundreds of men prominent in various branches of science and others whose work is in the field of sociology to listen to the reading of papers and engage in discussions. As usual, new theories are expected to be advanced and fresh discoveries announced.

Sir Oliver Joseph Lodge, principal of the University of Birmingham, will be the chairman.

To the United States the most important address will be on "The Economic Effects of the Opening of the Panama Canal," by Professor Adam W. Kirkaldy, professor of finance of the University of Birmingham.

TITTER AT X-RAY TROUSERS; GARB DISPLAYS THIN LEGS

"The sun was nearly setting as the tennis players strode in thin white pants and B. V. D.'s across the Claremont road. The players walked along the east, the sun was in the west. The pants were thin—also the legs—and you guess the rest!"

Lovely woman had one good laugh at mere man yesterday, and no male tennis enthusiast now can cast a stinging remark at the trans-parent skirt. Claremont tennis courts yesterday showed mere man up in a pot which called the kettle black—for no girl has pants sun and the women watching the tennis costumes well, tennis trousers are very thin, and the athletic underwear underneath, as a dreamer puts it, "assumes opacity to the knee only." Therefore the Tango X-ray gown was imitated in the Tango tennis trouser, or words to that effect.

Little giggles and snickers arose from members of the fair sex at the Claremont courts as the men made their appearance. The men were puzzled. They played their best—but the effect was spoiled. McLaughlin would make a good serve. The spectators would applaud, and then, as a stout tennis player passed, stop applauding to giggle. They laughed at the fat men and they laughed more at the thin men. On the whole it was a fine day for laughing, and this time lovely woman wasn't "the goat."

COUNTY CANNOT REDUCE PHONE RATES. SAYS LAW

Report Places Action With State Com-mission; Heeseman to Replace Mott

Alameda county can take no action in International Exposition 1915, was urged in an attempt to regulate telephone rates, by the county exposition commission, as requested by the Rate Payers' Protective League. This was stated in a re-quest to the state commission this morning by District Attorney W. H. Hayes and Walter J. Burpee, who de-clared that the matter is one to be regulated by the railroad commission.

The report is as follows:

"Let us state that under the provisions of section 23, article XII of the state constitution as amended October 10, 1910, the power to regulate public utilities, including power to regulate telephone rates, was conferred on the railroad commission and that the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county is without power to regulate such rates."

After quoting the amendment, the re-port continues:

"At a special session of the legislature held in the year 1912, the Public Utilities Act was passed, expressly con-ferring on the railroad commission authority in all these matters, and prescribing the method by which the power to regulate rates should be exercised. Re-spectively,

"W. H. L. HYNES, Dist. Atty.
WALTER J. BURPEE, Deputy."

HEESEMAN NAMED.

To take the place of Mayor Frank K. Mott, who last week resigned as pres-dent of the Alameda County Exposition Commission, Charles J. Heeseman was unanimously elected as a member of the body. The commission will meet to elect its president. Heeseman's appointment was made in view of his wide experience in publicity matters and county boosting.

JAPANESE CLAMOR AGAINST CHINA

Big Meeting Held; Insult to Flag Denounced by Speakers.

TOKIO, Sept. 8.—The assassination of Morihiro Ake, director of the political bureau of the Japanese foreign office, has inflamed the masses, and a dramatic chapter in the history of the new Japan was written yes-terday.

Fifteen thousand persons gathered in mass meeting in Hibiyama park, calling for military action against China. A majority of these marched to the foreign office and called for ad-mission. They demanded the despatch of troops to China, to take such mea-sures as were necessary to obtain satis-faction for the killing of Japanese at Nanking, or failing this the res-affairs, Baron Nobuaki Makino.

The speakers denounced the emptiness of Japanese diplomacy in connection with California and China, and insisted that the insult to the Japanese flag at Nanking should be wiped out. The manifestation clearly was an explosion of popular resent-ment against the ministry in its treatment of the California and Chi-nae questions.

POLICE ABSENT.

Following by the issues of the 1905 which followed the conclusion of peace between Russia and Japan, the government reduced the risk of vi-o-lence yesterday by refusing to allow a single soldier or policeman to be on duty.

The manifestations, many of whom were students, were orderly the early part of the proceedings. A score of reporters, including a girl, declared Japanese diplomats and de-clared that it had never contributed to the upbuilding of the empire, and always had ended in failure. The incidents in China were unbearable.

Suddenly the cry to march on the foreign office was raised, and there was a general stampede, many persons barely escaping being crushed. The crowds surged through the streets headed by gesticulating lead-ers, and reached the foreign office to find that the high iron gates were locked.

Scores of demonstrators pounded on the gates and called for them to be opened, but in vain. The under of officials refused. A delegation was ap-pointed, the members of which bashed the gates, and then ensued a long parley. Meanwhile the crowd was cheering, and we determined. It showered compliments on a beautiful girl, and angry stoned a photo-chief seeking to take snapshots of the chief delegate, who, having returned, mounted the portal to report pro-gress.

SPEAKER ON FENCE.

Perched unsteadily on the pickets, he made a fantastic picture and in a harsh arraignment declared that the committee demanded either the dis-patch of troops or the retirement of the foreign minister.

"We told the officials," he shoul-ded, "that the voice of the people speaks and that the agitation will never end until our demands are granted."

The extraordinary situation contin-ued for five hours, the delegates emerging periodically to pacify the crowd. Finally, when the discussion ended, they reported that Baron Ma-kino had promised to receive them September 15. This was greeted with howls of derision and a thousand rounds of applause. The crowd turned to the foreign minister's residence three miles distant. Police, however, prevented their near approach.

Another mass meeting was called for Sunday night at the Young Men's Christian Association hall.

ASKS FOR FUNDS.

The S. P. C. A. asked an increase in county aid for its work. It is claimed that the new state law abolishing the custom of giving the society half of the fines collected for infractions of humane laws has cut down its revenue. This was laid over until next week. The board accepted an invitation to ride an automobile in the N. S. G. W. parade tomorrow.

APPROPRIATE FUNDS.

The supervisors were requested by Fred Beagle to donate $300 for the Alameda County Exhibit at the State Fair.

It was also urged by the Exposition Com-mission.

The money is, it is said, to be used in preparing the display, which the manufacturers' committee will care for.

This was granted.

The proposal to levy a publicity tax, made by the Oakland Commercial Club, was opposed in a communication filed by the Peralta Improvement Club. This was filed. The Central Improvement Club also opposes the plan.

WANT TAX LEVIED.

Urging that the supervisors levy the city school taxes, Councilman Frank Bartlett of Alameda appeared before the board.

"The city council doesn't want to levy the tax and wants you to do it for them all," said Bartlett. No action was taken.

Information as to the county's plan for the state highway in its confines was requested by the "Hands Across the Har-bor" committee of the California De-velopment Board. Deputy County Clerk Andrew Johnstone will take up the mat-ter with the Roads and Bridges Committee, who will make out a report on the matter.

DISTRICT PLAN DELAYED.

The matter of the proposed Alameda County Water District, projected by citizens in Washington township, along Niles creek, will be delayed while the names are checked and the matter in-vestigated.

Notice was given last week that the petition would be filed.

R. M. Fitzgerald, representing property holders particularly owners of oyster beds near Alameda, asked time to investigate.

The district, according to the petition, is to conserve the waters of Alameda creek. It asks an election to decide on forming of the district. The petition was filed and the matter laid over for investigation. It will come up in two weeks.

FUNDS ARE VOTED.

An appropriation of $1500 for the Alameda County Fair at Pleasanton was urged by the Exposition Commission.

This was granted. No exhibit will be made at the Watsonville apple show.

An exhibit to cost $200 will be sent the mechanics' fair, $350 will be appropriated for the California Land Show. The plan of the exposition is to move the San Joaquin exhibit from place to place, these affairs following in rotation. The initial expense will thus be utilized for the other shows, insuring the county a better exhibit in each case for the mon-ey expended.

EMPLOYEES NAMED.

The following were named as vaca-tion relief employees at county infirmary: L. Lange, nurse; T. Spencer, pot-washer; C. Plerson, nurse, and C. H. Hall-mann, grave digger.

M. McManus, nurse at the Emergency hospital and J. B. Wilson, janitor, were granted.

PLANS ARE FILED.

Plans for curbs and gutters on the main county road from San Leandro to Hayward were filed with the county by P. A. Hayland. The work is estimated at $2000. The work will be ordered as per plans. Bids were called for on the same.

ASKS FOR LEVY.

Superintendent of Schools G. W. Frick requested a tax levy of $10,180 for Unlon high school district No. 10. This was referred to the county auditor.

The Hayward Chamber of Commerce requested that East Fourteenth street be paved from Roberts Landing bridge to the town limits. This was referred to Supervisor Bridge for a report.

LICENSE GRANTED.

A saloon license was granted Ralph A. Schirmer, Alameda. Application for a license was filed by Margaret Kubel, Mount Eden station.

CONSIDER DISTRICTS.

The plan for redistricting the county was initiated by the county auditor, each supervisor looking over his own district.

of the Oakland playground department took part. Unique in its inception, production and success, this pageant attracted thousands to the shores of the lake and was rendered in a manner that should return great credit to the playground commission under whose charge it was held. The pageant was written and was under the direction of J. C. Huston. The dances were supervised by Miss Winifred Van Buren, Miss Bernice Chambers and Miss L. F. Bassett. The pageant depicted the Indian days, Mission days, Spanish days, Pioneer days, Mining days and the coming of Fremont, and altogether was a beautiful conception of the early and later history of the Golden State.

ELECTRICAL PARADE TONIGHT

The principal feature of the program tonight is the electrical parade which starts at 8:45 and which will be participated in by hundreds of Native Sons and Daughters from San Francisco which will join the pageant at Second and Washington streets at 9:15 o'clock. The electrical pageant will be composed of decorated cars of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railroads. It is expected that this parade will be unique in every way and will open the eyes of the public to the possibilities offered in the decoration of electric cars in a peasant of this sort.

There will be a big fireworks display after the electrical parade following the electrical pageant. Bombs of large varieties and great power will be shot off ten minutes before the display begins tonight and tomorrow night.

The electrical pageant of the Native Sons will begin at 8:45 o'clock, when the firing of huge shells ten minutes previous will announce the commencement of the program.

The set places for tonight will be "State Seal," "The Golden Poppy" and "The Attack on Fort Sumter."

The Native Sons feared that this would interfere with their monster celebration in Oakland, and asked a change in the program, which Dr. Barrows has readily granted. He issued the following statement:

Here's Our Hand; Shake! Says Mayor Frank Mott

TO THE NATIVE SONS OF THE GOLDEN WEST AND THE NATIVE DAUGHTERS OF THE GOLDEN WEST—GREETING:

By your selection of the city of Oakland as the place of celebration of Admission day a signal honor has been conferred upon our citizens. With full appreciation of this favor they have planned, by cooperating with the local parishes of your organizations, to make the festive worthy of the event which it commemorates. It is with the greatest pleasure that Oakland bids you welcome and hands over to you, without reserve, the keys of the city. May your visit be one of such pleasant experiences that you will as much regret leaving us as we shall regret your departure.

Our people welcome you with open arms and in the spirit of friend-ship which links us in a bond of patriotism to our beloved state. The observance of Admission day is peculiarly Californian, for it helps all of us to hold steadfastly to those memories of the days when the strong, sturdy and staunch pioneers of our state laid so substantial a foundation that a magnificent commonwealth has been solidly built for all time upon it.

In the name of the city of Oakland I have the honor and pleasure of saying to you heartiest of welcomes.

FRANK K. MOTT,
Mayor of the City of Oakland.

Oakland, September 8, 1912.

CIRCULARS IN ERROR.
The big electrical parade of the Native Sons will take place tonight instead of tomorrow night, as announced in a number of programs into which an error crept. The big parade will take place at 9 o'clock, and at 10 fireworks will be displayed at Lake Merritt. A number of the programs have these events scheduled for tomorrow night. The committee has corrected the error and announces both events for this evening, as originally scheduled.

HOLIDAY TUESDAY AT UNIVERSITY

Acting President Barrows Changes Program at Request of Native Sons.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 8.—In reference to the wishes of the Native Sons, acting president of the University David P. Barrows has declared tomorrow a legal holiday. It had been first planned to hold the regular university exercises with a miniature powerhouse, the counterpart of the Alameda municipal electric light plant. The proposed municipal baths will also be shown.

Arrangements have been made by the Chamber of Commerce and the San Francisco & Oakland Terminal Railways to run the boat through Alameda next Saturday night and it will later be used in the Portola celebration.

The words "Alameda, Cal." surmount the entire float, and over 1000 electric lights are used in the illumination.

ALAMEDA'S FLOAT FOR THE PARADE

Will Be One of Most Beautiful in the Native Son's Carnival.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 8.—Alameda's float in the electrical parade of the Native Sons tonight probably will be one of the finest in the pageant. The committee in charge of the float visited it in the Emeryville car barns today and announced it complete. The float is mounted upon a full-size car and represents a typical Alameda scene.

On a broad lawn is a pergola overlooking the bay. In this pergola will be seated three young ladies sipping tea. In the offing is a miniature yacht with three young girls in sailor costume as the crew.

Miss Nell Schmidt, Alameda's mermaid, will be seated on a rock on the edge of the imitation sea. She and two other water nymphs will be in their bathing costumes.

The whole float is surrounded by electrotrolers, counterparts of those in use in this city, that make it one of the best-lighted residence cities in the world.

Light for the electrotrolers is supplied from a miniature powerhouse, the counterpart of the Alameda municipal electric light plant. The proposed municipal baths will also be shown.

The Oakland Presbytery will probably appoint a committee to make a thorough investigation of the whole controversy before reaching any decision.

YACHT CONTEST IS INTERNATIONAL EVENT

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Sept. 8.—With the three German boats eliminated, the sonder yacht contest became national instead of international today, with the American yacht Ellen Cima and Sprig in the last races for the President Wilson and Governor Frost trophy. The Ellen had two less and the Cima and Sprig on each for the Wilson cup when the racing began today. Three wins are necessary for possession.

EXPECT MANY BATHERS.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 8.—Alameda beach resorts were crowded again yesterday, the warm weather being the best feature of the Native Sons' carnival taxing the capacity of the various institutions.

Special arrangements have been made to handle a more than ordinarily large crowd tomorrow, when if the weather is fine, thousands are expected to take a dip in the bay.

COLOGNE, Germany, Sept. 8.—Gus Lewin, an American cyclist and Schurmann, a German rider, were killed and Meinhold, the German's pacemaker, was fatally injured here today in the course of a motor paced bicycle race for the 100-kilometer championship. A bursting tire caused the accident.

POCKET PICKED WHILE FISTICALLY ENGAGED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—James Jeffries and Joseph Neff, expressmen at the Ferry building, quarreled this morning over a customer which one had succeeded in getting from the clutches of the other. While the "fistic combat" was being indulged in by both, some one stole Jeffries' purse containing $5. He informed Patrolman Ryan that he believed the whole thing was a plot to rob him and he was going to procure a warrant for the arrest of the man he believes got his money.

WIDNEY'S BROTHER TO FACE GRAVE CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—A. B. Widney, brother of Arthur J. Widney, recently in the Livermore sanitarium and son of Judge Widney of Los Angeles, is charged with white slavery in a warrant issued by Police Judge Shartell today.

Miss Noel Murphy of 525 Kearny street, a young woman who has recently come to this city, is the complaining witness.

Widney is said to be out of the city.

MISS LULU MAYSMITH TO REAPPEAR TONIGHT

Miss Lulu Maysmith, the Lyric soprano, which was the special feature of the Native Sons' celebration last evening at their Court of Honor at Fifteenth and Broadway, has been asked by the entertainment committee to reappear tonight at the same place and render the same selection that she sang last evening, "California, Land of the Golden West."

Miss Maysmith will not sing on Tuesday afternoon as she was scheduled to appear.

The reason for this is that the committee wants the out-of-town visitors who come in today to hear the charming young singer render the song that was,

AGED COUPLE IN FIGHT OVER PROPERTY

"Bought and Paid For" Will Be Seen On Admission Day.

John H. Pearson Declared Sane by Court; Suit Continued.

Holdings Deeded to Granddaughter Are Cause of Dispute.

Charged with insanity the day he was to have appeared in court in the suit to have set aside deeds to valuable property, John M. Pearson, 80 years of age, was discharged by Superior Judge Wells continued to October 21. The affidavit of insanity was sworn to by Pearson's wife, Mrs. Vashly M. Pearson, who is also 80 years of age.

Disagreement between the aged couple over property deeded to Jennie Pisani, granddaughter of Pearson, is said to have been at the bottom of the charges preferred today.

Property at Union street near Alameda avenue, Alameda, was deeded to the granddaughter in February, 1910, with consideration that the Pearsons should be provided with a home and living for the remainder of their lives, and cared for by the granddaughter.

But trouble is alleged to have arisen in the household between Mrs. Pearson and Jennie Pisani, with the result that the elderly couple were forced to leave. The Pearsons then brought suit to have the deed set aside and the matter was pending in the court with trial set for today.

That her husband is still favorable to his granddaughter and that he was not inclined to press the action for recovery is believed to have been the reason for the discord that arose and led to Mrs. Pearson swearing out the affidavit today.

The property deeded originally was reconveyed later to Pearson, and his granddaughter then joined him in a deed to Grace Hoffman in exchange for property at Santa Clara avenue and Morton street, ownership being still vested in the granddaughter's name and with the original proviso that the Pearsons were to be provided with a home for life.

With a special matinee tomorrow afternoon, performances tonight and tomorrow night, "Bought and Paid For," George Broadhurst's remarkable drama of marital life and its problems, will close its engagement at the Macdonough. Huge crowds have been thrilled by the wonderful offering, declared by critics to be the greatest of Broadhurst's plays, and the special matinee tomorrow will afford many a chance to see the drama.

"Bought and Paid For" is a play dealing with the story of a millionaire who marries a telephone girl, and when in his cups, degrades himself. When she repulses his advances, he demands that he be allowed to continue his third act contains a scene so big that it draws gasps from the audience as the husband, demanding control from the woman while she seeks to escape his drunken embraces, breaks down her door. Later he discovers that money cannot buy love, and the play ends with the problem of marriage settled as far as this case is concerned.

The play is wonderful in many ways. Four chief characters preach a powerful lesson, and with that ability which has made his plays famous, Broadhurst follows his tragic lines with comedy which causes sobs to be stifled in laughter.

William A. Brady is producing the piece with an excellent cast. "Bought and Paid For" has had phenomenal success in London, New York and in all parts of the United States. It contains some of the most human comedy ever written into a play and some of the greatest truisms. It teaches the lesson that the dollar does not represent happiness, and entertains while doing it. The last performance will be tomorrow evening.

RICHMOND, Sept. 8.—Members of the Point Richmond Commercial club at a meeting next Wednesday evening are going to endorse the project that has been launched by Mayor Heywood of Berkeley and is being supported by many officers of other east bay municipalities to form a district of all the cities and villages in the area and holdings of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways company.

The majority of the members of this west side club are strongly in favor of municipal ownership of all street railways under the new state law which gives the cities the necessary power to acquire street car systems from corporations, and Secretary Jackson stated today that there is probably no question but that the big "boost" club of the west side would endorse the proposition. The Sequoia Commercial club of the east side has already gone on record as favoring the project and the city council is expected to take favorable action on the matter as soon as it is presented in tangible shape.

Mayor R. R. Ludwig stated today that he is greatly interested in the plan and as soon as he was notified of the date on which the officials of the various east bay cities will meet to discuss the project he would certainly arrange to attend in order to learn the opinion of others who are in the matter.

The project is finally launched, it is certain that Richmond will go on record as favoring it.

FAIL IN ATTEMPTS TO DYNAMITE POWER LINE.

Plan to Throw City Into Darkness During Celebration Not Success.

Poles Snapped by Explosive, But Wires Are Un-hurt.

Two attempts to dynamite transmission wires and poles of the plant of the Pacific Gas and Electric company and the Great Western Power company were made early yesterday morning within 15 minutes of each other. Had the plans of the conspirators succeeded, the city would have been in darkness for at least forty-eight hours as the strategic points in the service of the two plants were dynamited. The attempt failed, however, and the service was uninterrupted.

Poles carrying the high tension wires of the two companies were dynamited near the Fish ranch in Contra Costa county, but the wires were not damaged and the stumps of the damaged poles hung by the heavy wires. There was no short circuit.

WAS RESULT OF PLAN.

The plan to wreck the plant had been carefully prepared and was planned as a demonstration. It is alleged, to throw the city in darkness during the N. S. G. W. celebration. That an attempt of this kind was planned for Saturday or Sunday was known to the police, and efforts were made to guard against the dynamiting of the transformer plant.

Leaders of the strikers were warned that summary police action would follow if any overt acts occurred, and at a meeting of the workers here last week a vote was taken on the question whether any demonstration would be countenanced by the strikers during the N. S. G. W. celebration. The vote was practically unanimous against countenancing any such action.

Despite the fact that the strikers went on record against any demonstration that would affect the N. S. G. W. celebration, the men who were left guilty of several explosions in the last few weeks determined to make another attempt.

ATTEMPT FAILED.

In the placing of dynamite at the base of the high power tension wire poles back of the hills, it was anticipated that the shock would be so great that it would snap the wires and drop them to the ground, thereby causing a short-circuit, and the blowing out of the boards in two big transformer stations. The dynamite acted different. It cut away the wires, but did not snap the slender wires that the poles were left hanging on. Last night, and not a line was snapped.

The explosion was heard by the Pacific guards, who galloped to the scene, but too late to apprehend the dynamiters. The explosion took place where the Pacific and Great Western power wires cross. The Great Western and Pacific companies have an agreement to supply each other with power should an accident happen to one of the power lines. This place is the only one where both companies could be put out of commission at the same time.

Inspectors Richard McSorley and William Enigh have been detailed on the case by Captain Andrew. The companies' guards have been increased.

'BURGLAR' PROVES TO BE BUT DREAM.

Girl's Screams Arouse House; Nightmare Was Vivid.

Wild screams attracted the inmates of the Evers Apartments. Twenty-third street and Telegraph avenue, to the room of Miss Dot Paden at an early hour this morning. From her screams, which caused a police alarm to be turned in, it was feared that the girl was being murdered. It turned out to be only a nightmare.

Miss Paden had a vivid dream of a burglar, who entered her room, according to the police and her landlady. She dreamed that the thief attacked her and screamed. An alarm was sent in. When the police arrived the young woman was hysterical, but more composed. This morning she had fully recovered, and went to San Francisco, where she is employed as usual.

Sergeant Eock and Patrolmen Bergen and Poulsen answered the alarm. They were reassured by the landlady and later interviewed the girl, reporting the case as nightmare on the police books.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP OF TERMINALS ADVOCATED

Mayor Heywood Presents Plan for Absorption of S. F.-Oakland Railways

BERKELEY, Sept. 8.—Mayor Chas. D. Heywood has issued the following statement relative to the municipal ownership of street railroads:

The east bay communities have been brought face to face with a most important question, with which it must deal cautiously and with great judgment, because the municipalities of the nation in particular and the world in general is today demanding the ownership of public service utilities and we here on this side of the bay have the opportunity to afford to the whole world a most striking example. We must handle the situation in a keen, business like manner and by working harmoniously together, make the acquisition and operation of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, such a success from a municipal ownership point of view that the world will be impressed. We must handle the situation in a keen, business like manner and by working harmoniously together, make the acquisition and operation of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, such a success from a municipal ownership point of view that the world will be impressed. The money which has been expended in the actual construction by the company will have to be paid, this being the company's equity, and all the people will have to tax themselves for at this time is the amount of money which has been invested in the company and the whole world will be now battling with the regulation of public service corporation. If our effort meets with success, and I am absolutely sure that it will, other cities will then enter upon similar enterprises without fear. I say that we now have the golden opportunity and we should prove to the world that municipalities can own and operate their own public utilities along sound business lines. To a degree our sister city, San Francisco, has shown us the way.

Let us follow her noble leadership and do the same in the much to municipal liberty.

ADVISABILITY BEYOND DISPUTE.

With the opinions of so many prominent citizens in every walk of life so unanimously in favor of the proposition, the advisability of the acquisition of the lines, rolling stock, plants and overhead systems of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways Company by a public utility district is now beyond dispute.

The next step is to get the legal machinery started in order that this "pleasant dream" may become a glowing reality.

The method outlined in the Gates Bill, under which we propose working, provides:

Sec. 2. When any municipality in the State of California desires to organize such a public utility district as herein provided for, the legislative body of such municipal corporation, at any regular meeting of such body may pass an ordinance reciting:

1. The name of the city adopting the ordinance.

2. That the public interest required the incorporation of a public utility district.

3. The boundaries of the proposed district, and the names of the municipalities included within the proposed district. If such proposed district includes only municipalities, it shall be sufficient to state the names thereof without further setting forth the boundaries of the district.

4. The name of the district which shall include the words "public utility district."

An estimate of the preliminary costs and expenses of organizing the proposed district, and a proposed apportionment of the aggregate of such costs and expenses among the municipalities, to be included within the district."

ORDINANCE BEING PUSHED.

The City Attorney of Berkeley has been instructed to prepare this ordinance within our delay and I will see that it is ready for adoption by this municipality and submitted to the other interested legislative bodies at the earliest possible moment. I realize that no time should be lost and will do all in my power to facilitate action all along the line.

The boundaries of the district are being carefully worked out by the County Surveyor P. A. Harland, who has offered his services gratuitously in a truly spirituous manner, and these will no doubt be completed within the next few days.

The costs and expenses of the organization of the district are merely the expenses of holding a special municipal election at which we need only four election officers in each precinct. By purchasing the supplies for the election in a wholesome manner, the cost could be made very nominal in each municipality.

WHAT ACT PROVIDES.

The Act provides that after favorable adoption of the proposition by the citizens, a Board of Directors shall be appointed consisting of the Mayors of the municipalities and presidents of the Boards of Supervisors for the outside territory and one additional director to be appointed for the first 5000 qualified electors and another director to be appointed for each 10,000 qualified electors over and above the first 5000. All of these directors are chosen by and from the legislative bodies of the municipalities and unincorporated territory, and if the number of members of any legislative body be less than the number of directors such municipality is entitled to, then such legislative body may choose directors from the qualified electors of the municipality or if any member of a legislative body may choose any other person who is an elector and resident of the municipality. This would make a Board of Directors consisting of about twenty-one (21) members, who receive only their necessary expenses in attending the meetings. This Board of Directors have all the general powers necessary to govern and manage the public utility.

Three (3) commissioners are appointed by the Board of Directors to directly manage the system. The commissioners are removable at the pleasure of the Board of Directors or by recall upon a fifteen per cent petition being filed with the Board by the citizens on public election. The commissioners have active management of the system at salaries to be fixed by the Board of Directors.

IMMUNE FROM POLITICS.

The proposed utility district on this side of the bay under these proceedings would be absolutely immune from politics. The several directors, representing eleven (11) separate bodies and communities with their terms of office commencing all at different periods, would not be inclined to bring about the organization of this district in the manner provided in the Gates bill at the earliest possible moment.

PROBATION RENEWED, WITH JOB IN COUNTRY.

Lebbie Phillips, who was charged with violating his probation, was released upon the former terms of his probation when the case came up for disposition before a judge yesterday.

While this proposition looks large from a financial standpoint, yet when you consider that the assessed valuation of the district totals approximately $100,000,000, with a population of 260,000, it is plain to see that the project can be successfully handled and carried out as regards finances.

For any increase in taxes, the district would be called upon to pay only the equity which the stockholders now

The company has already established sinking funds which will mature in various years, which, as shown by their financial statements, is and will continue to be retired each year from now until 1930. This conclusively shows that these funds and interest are now being taken care of from the earnings of the company alone. In other words, the company is and will continue to pay for itself. The money which has been expended in the actual construction by the company will have to be paid, this being the company's equity, and all the people will have to tax themselves for at this time is the amount of money which has been invested in the company. The bonds in the company are held by the

CALIFORNIA'S PRIDE AND HOPE

Oakland's doors stand wide open in hospitable welcome to the native Sons. It is a pleasure to have them among us, and to extend hospitality in the spirit of kinship. We trust they will enjoy their stay among us and carry home with them pleasant recollections of this city and its inhabitants.

Our visitors represent the youth of our land. They hold in their hands the future of the State which is their pride and boast. California's giant trees, natural wonders, fertile valleys, lofty mountains, rivers, waterfalls, orange groves, vineyards, orchards, fruitful fields and glorious climate are not really the State. They claim our pride and loyalty, but they are neither part nor parcel of the commonwealth. The name is that.

Our young men and women could not help being born in California. They are justly proud of their birthplace and birthright, and they can best manifest that pride by striving to honor it and make the name of California stand for something more glorious than natural wonders, a genial climate and a soil production unsurpassed anywhere on the earth. They must be equal to their environment and opportunities. They must rise to the mental and moral stature of their surroundings. We want tall men to fit in with the giants of the forest. We want big brains more than huge pumpkins and immense pears and oranges. The generous warmth of the genial climate should be a reflection of the glowing impulses of the children born under these skies. As this favored land is worthy of love and devotion, so should every child of California give to its service the highest gifts of heart and brain—lay upon its altar the noblest aspirations and attributes.

Greece was not immortalized by her climate and fruits, but by the poets, artists, philosophers, statesmen and soldiers, whose name and fame have thundered down the corridors of time and enriched the world with a legacy of culture which is still paying dividends to mankind. They taught the world to think and develop the talents which lift men above all animate creation.

The lesson of Greece should not be lost on the youth of California. Greece fell and sank into sloth, slavery and degradation. When her literature and philosophy were being taught in all the schools of Western Europe, her people were serfs of Asiatic barbarians. Her speech was corrupted, her glories forgotten and the arts she taught the world neglected. Government by the people perished where it had its birth, and the decay of manners and morals was in keeping with the ruined temples, the departed culture, lost liberty, squalor and degradation.

Greece fell because she bred a race of degenerate sons prodigal of a noble inheritance. The descendants of the men who fought at became herdsmen and peddlers, and the posterity of the men who carved immortality in marble and letters sank almost to the level of the swine and sheep they herded. Faction and self had overthrown and destroyed the fairest civilization the world had ever known.

This example of degeneracy will be avoided if the native sons and daughters are true to their land and destiny. If they do not squander their gifts, California will be to the world what Athens was twenty-four centuries ago. Virtue, patriotism and learning will teach men to be wiser and better and create a civilization which will shed its radiance to the farthest ends of the earth and make California truly great. It rests with the young men and women who today exult in the pride of birth, to plant here a culture whose moral fibre shall be as rich and strong as its intellectual texture is fine-grained and high-colored, a combination, as Matthew Arnold styles it, of sweetness and light, animated by lofty emotions, self-sacrifice, courage and an ardent desire to lead in movements to make the world better and happier and mankind truer to the claim of kinship with God.

Twenty Years Ago Today

This afternoon articles of incorporation of the Co-Operative Brotherhood of Winter Island were filed with the County Clerk. The objects of the corporation are to establish and maintain general trade in merchandise, farm products and machinery and to produce and manufacture anything that may be legally bought and sold. Just 100 people have joined in the scheme and signed the incorporation papers.

The First Danish Norwegian Baptist Church has filed articles of incorporation. The directors for the first year are L. C. Nelson, O. A. Petersen, John Nielsen, John Johnson, C. Peterson.

Arrangements are being made to put the free delivery system into operation Postmaster McCarty expects to receive authorization in a few weeks. The chief obstacle to the system, namely the absence of any means by which the stranger be obviated by the use of sign boards on the corners of the thoroughfares Deputy District Attorney A. L. Frick has now fully recovered from his recent illness. He expects to be able to return to work in a few days.

Judge Frank B. Odgen has recovered

Health. He expects to be able to return to court again.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Jackson have returned from San Jose county.

Miss I. L. Chapman has returned from Oakland and Alameda parlors will celebrate Admission Day at Napa. The celebration will comprise speeches by Mayor Shurleff and Hon. W. S. Barnes them, sometimes helped by inflated bladders, but usually unaided. Once, having a seizure in the water, he cried out, you remember, "Help me, Cassius, or I perish!" He explored personally and afoot conquered cities, accompanied by way of precaution by but one or two servants—an admirable precaution for epileptics when at all possible.

In the glutinous days of Caligula or Nero, and had to any extent indulged in dietary excesses, he never would have crossed the Rubicon nor effected the United States weather station here.

CAESAR, THE EPILEPTIC

Matthew Wood, M. D., in Neale's Monthly.)

Says Mark Antony, who had evidently seen him in convulsions. "When the fit was on me I marked how he did shake; 'tis true this god did shake." Again: "Ye gods, it doth amaze me a man of such a feeble temper should so get the start of the majestic world and bear the palm alone."

We would hardly recommend horseback riding to an epileptic. "But by dint of perseverance," says the historian Oppius,

"Caesar became an expert horseman, often dictating to two or three secretaries what he said in the Senate, and . . . without using his hands." We have had a somewhat similar experience in our own practice, where the patient, unlike Caesar, gave up epilepsy while continuing as a horse-trainer.

When Caesar came to unbridged rivers particular assassin to rid him of an enemy who was "not fit to doctor a cat."

RAIN NOT ENOUGH TO BREAK DROUGHT

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 8.—Light showers at scattered points brought drought relief to parts of Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma today, but no instance were heavy enough to break the long drought, according to reports reaching the United States weather station here.

A POOR MAN'S VACATION

(By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.)

(Copyright: 1913: By Laura Jean Libby.)

If there is a man who has need to worry over the coming of summer it is he who is poor in purse, but rich in the possession of a houseful of fair, winsome daughters.

The wife of such a family is usually an attractive woman. The mother of six daughters is the easiest flat, and through rigid economy save for the rainy day. His wife's views clash with him most decidedly. She insists that they must live in a fine appearing house, in a good neighborhood.

Of course, it takes every cent the husband can manage to meet the expenses but his wife assures him that he is too busy to worry over the coming of summer. There is an opportunity to meet a fine class of people socially. It is but fair that he will expect, all in good time, to have good sons-in-law to relieve him of his responsibilities.

It is in the dear old summer time that papa finds his burden the hardest. At first he hears hints that his wife and daughters would like a vacation. But if he persistently ignores the remarks mamma and her daughters make a direct appeal.

Then there is a chorus of angry protests. If he turns to the country boarding-houses there is equal indignation.

But the girls for an entire session are in a place where they couldn't be seen there. Never."

Then and there the wife comes out flatly with the remark that she has selected a hotel at the seashore. She admits that it's trifling expensive for them, but the cost of living is so high above. Her girls will be belle of the place. They would have but little need for outside companions. They could talk and laugh among themselves. And what a sensation they would create, the eldest dark-eyed girl in red tulie, the blonde of the family in sky blue, and the tall baby of the family in a riot of colors as such a dashing, pretty girl of her type would dare wear!

Father declares that he couldn't begin to stand such an expense. He attempted to find ways to walk to and fro from his business, but it took him an hour to walk to paper, collar and a dinner, and wash out his own handkerchiefs and socks. He would have to cook his own frugal meals on the gas stove at home. Practice economy in every possible way.

"Of course, dear," his wife repeats.

"It would be in a splendid case if we could afford to go to the place I have selected. The wealthy guests have sons, who come to see the old folks the better part of the year. What more natural for the young people to look, fall desperately in love, and the romance is begun. It is the duty of every father to make an effort to launch his family of daughters on a prosperous future."

COLORADO SPRINGS, Sept. 8.—

While the Governors were in session here they decided many momentous questions—how the country should be ruled, how taxes should be levied, and so forth, ad libitum; but the principal thing decided, with any enthusiasm, was that four Governors' fair daughters took the beauty prize among the women at the big conclave.

Miss O'Neill, a Southern beauty and daughter of the Governor of Alabama; Miss Aileen Dunne, daughter of the Illinois chief executive; Miss Mona Dunne, her sister, and Miss Ammons, daughter of the Governor of Colorado, were the four beauties of the convention.

Miss O'Neill is an ardent sports woman, and also comes to the defense of the "rag" and the "Tango." She doesn't, however, approve of slit skirts, while admitting that in getting aboard a street car they are an advantage.

The four girls were immensely popular in society while the Governors met here.

Keep Your Annoyances to Yourself

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright: 1913: by Lillian Russell)

HOW much braver it is to keep our troubles from the world than to air them in public.

There are some women who keep a calm, beautiful exterior, even though they be in a state of mental ferment. These women are far above the ordinary in intelligence.

They know the uselessness of showing their feelings if those feelings are not the best.

They know how little interest the ordinary world has in their troubles.

The world cares only for the best in people, and takes no interest in their personal misfortunes.

In competitions of mental or physical endurance the side that shows alarm, fear or anger is always the losing side.

The woman beautiful must cultivate fortitude and calmness.

A little knowledge of the philosophy of life will help one to be calm and accept the inevitable.

The strongest characters do not express emotions in public, but they go through all the heart-pangs just the same as the weaker ones, and often perhaps more seriously.

Remember: To be resigned is a form of weakness, but to accept the inevitable is strength.

WOMEN ACTIVE IN STRIKE.

CALUMET, Mich., Sept. 8.—The Western Federation of Miners today will make another attempt to rid the copper miners' strike district of the special deputies whom Sheriff Cross has employed to maintain order.

The federation's second motion for a temporary injunction against the men will be heard by Circuit Judge P. H. O'Brien.

The federation already has procured a temporary injunction restraining the Copper Range Consolidated Mining Company from ejecting strikers from company houses.

James Oliver of Butte, Mont., assisting the local strike leaders, addressing the strikers at the Champion mine, urged the men "not to stand idly by and see their women beaten by deputies, but to take a hand and lose your lives if necessary."

The last few weeks women strike sympathizers have interfered with the workmen, while the men have kept in the background and women have been arrested both by deputies and soldiers.

Strikers and women sympathizers held a big parade yesterday afternoon.

GIRL AND NURSE DROWN.

STONEHAM, Mass., Sept. 8.—Miss Ada Feingold, aged 20, of Worcester, a patient at a sanatorium, and her nurse, Miss Hazel Crummell, aged 21, of Akron, O., were drowned in Quarter Mile pond.

The young women were out for a stroll, when, according to a boy witness, Miss Feingold leaped into the water. Miss Crummell, although unable to swim, stepped after her patient and was dragged to the bottom.

AMERICAN WOMEN CARELESS

They over-estimate their physical strength and take chances which in crease the animal fat on the vegetable oil. As a result superfluous weight is gained and the skin becomes dry. Wet feet, a cold from exposure, neglect of such warning symptoms as backache, nervousness, bearing down pains, all lead to untold suffering. To all such women we want to say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the infallible remedy in such cases. Thousands of American women testify to its virtue.

WE'RE THREATENED WITH ANCIENT CRINOLINE

ARIS, Sept. 8.—Modiste Wingrove, the well-known fashion producer, declares the feature of the coming winter fashions will be the revival of the use of crinoline, unfavored by society since the days of our grandmothers, and says the crinoline will gowns will be trimmed with fur.

The crinoline itself will extend to the knees with a softer substance below.

Panniers will again be popular, says the modiste, but in unenclosed proportions. Other features of probable popularity will be the wider use of waistcoats, both brocaded and embroidered. Skirt slits will be lowered. All demand for the X-ray skirt has already vanished. Bodices for the evening are to be most decoupage in chiffon with a large back display. Petticoats it is judged are gone forever.

GIRL CUTS LIVING COST.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 8.—Miss Clara Lee of Towanda, Pa., who lived for twenty weeks on $10 last spring while a student at the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, has sent word to the faculty that she will be here this fall and proposes to continue her meager diet stunt.

In fact, the young woman is bankrolling after a new record, and says she will endeavor to cut the 59 cents a week margin by a few cents. Local tradesmen are praying that Miss Lee does not start cutting the cost of living fad among other students this fall.

SEEKS REST IN JAIL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Declaring that she sought a term in jail as a "rest" from twenty years of unremitting housework, a well-dressed woman about 40 years of age, who refused to give her name, is in the Raymonds-street jail in Brooklyn, held for deliberately seeking arrest. She went into a department store today, calmly filled her arms with articles, and was arrested as she went out. She told Magistrate Nash when arraigned that she had been "starving for human kindness" and that the first of such attentions she had enjoyed in years were the ministrations of the police matron.

WHITE SILENT IN FACE OF ATTACK

S. F. CHIEF OF POLICE IS TARGET

Ninety-Eight Patrolmen Only on Streets During Early Morning Hours.

More Than Hundred Easy Office Jobs Are Parceled Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Chief of Police White has nothing to say when questioned as to his opinion of the charge made that only 98 out of patrol force of 749 men have been in the habit of walking the streets between midnight and 8 o'clock in the morning.

Asked as to his ideas upon the report of Police Commissioner Max Kuhl that he was honest but inefficient in his administration of the department, White remarked for the second time, "I have nothing to say."

The Chief smiles and says he is not reading the newspapers.

White has been assailed from several angles. The police commission, it is understood, is preparing a report in which two commissioners side one way and the other. Kuhl and Jesse Cook are reported as being in favor of White's removal, although Cook will not sign minority report to that effect. On the other hand Theodore Roche and Dr. Thomas Shrimpton are supporting the present chief.

There are at present nearly 500 members of the police department, including 449 patrolmen, serving during most of the hours of the night when most of the crimes are committed there are only 98 men on the street. This is only one-half of the number that patrolled San Francisco ten years ago during the same hours.

Deficiencies in the sergeant and corporal reports and in the overseeing of the men are also placed at White's door as the result of an investigation being made and it is claimed that there are more than a hundred easy office jobs parceled out to patrolmen who ought to be on the street.

MRS. PANKHURST UNDESIRABLE?

Immigration Officials May Interfere With Her Landing.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Before Mrs. Ish militant suffragettes, can be admitted to the United States, the time set in the latest announcements for her coming, the immigration authorities will decide whether any of the acts for which she has been imprisoned in England constitute moral turpitude within the meaning of the law and make her an undesirable alien.

She will be detained at whatever port she lands but whether eventually, she may be permitted to enter, cannot be foretold. To the immigration authorities Mrs. Pankhurst's visit presents at this time purely a hypothetical question and they decline to pass on it in advance.

Officials of the Department of Labor now are seeking all obtainable information concerning the British suffragettes' militant activities that may have a legal bearing on her right to admission to the United States.

LIFT THE GOBLET HIGH!

Wide stand the gates at our mother's door;
Wide as the plains that stretch before;
Wide as Eureka's satin shore
Stranger, draw rein, draw rein!

The kingdom of grateful sons lies here,
A kingdom wonned with a wide-world sphere,
Crude gold kissed in a cradle clear—
Stranger, remain, remain!

Bred and braved on the tang-tinged soil,
Enriched by the sweat of our fathers' toll,
Steel-nerved, we watch the dawn uncurl—
Uncoll on the promised land!

Straight up-sprung from Eureka's knee,
Bathed in the fount of Arcady,
Sons of the Golden West are we—
Brother, take hand, take hand!

Close today stand we side by side,
A great state's prop and a great state's pride,
Sons of a mother none ranks beside—
Stranger, give heed, give heed!

Who dare scoff when a son stands up,
Stands up straight with a golden cup,
For a toast to the mother who gave him sup?
Mother, indeed, indeed!

Let the cup be drained and then filled anew!
Tis a noble toast I would give to you.
To the mother and Native Sons—the two!
Hold up the goblet high!

CURRENCY BILL NOW AWAITING REPORT

May Be Filed Tomorrow and Ready for Debate Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The administration currency bill probably will be reported tomorrow and will be read, for debate Wednesday. The Republican report will be filed at the same time. The house will complete its consideration of the bill on Wednesday.

Senor Zamacona said that the report that he was going to Washington as the special representative of President Huerta is untrue. "I am going to the capital on purely private business," he said. Further, he said that he declined to talk.

The senate banking committee resumed hearings today with W. H. Allen of Brooklyn, Professor O. A. W. Sprague of Harvard will be again questioned tomorrow.

Chairman Henry of the house rules committee called at the White House today, he said, to assure President Wilson that his committee was ready to introduce a special rule if necessary to expedite the bill through the house. He predicted that the bill would be passed by the house after a week's debate.

Court Deplores Pernicious Activity While Granting Decree of Divorce.

Too much mother-in-law was the trouble that broke up the marital ties of Charles A. Nesbit and his wife, Mabel Jeanette Nesbit, according to the findings of Superior Judge Wells, who this morning granted Mrs. Nesbit a divorce on her cross-complaint after a brief court hearing.

It is a pity that parents cannot realize that when their children get married they should be left alone," said Judge Wells. In making his decision "There is no great pity and a great crime that two young lives should be ruined by such conduct as the parents of plaintiff in this action are unquestionably guilty of."

Mrs. Joseph Nesbit, 1821 Seventh avenue mother of the husband, sat in court and heard the rebuke.

Testimony showed that the Nesbits, who were married in Hayward May 12, 1912, had later moved to 629 East Eighteenth street, a short distance from the home of his mother and that opened into a feeling of animosity against the young bride on the part of Mrs. Nesbit's son. Mrs. Nesbit continuously found fault with her daughter-in-law. It is said, and did not approve of her being a member of the Nesbit family.

Miss Hazel King, sister of Mrs. Nesbit, testified as to what she knew of the unharmonious conditions, and after hearing the testimony of the young Mrs. Nesbit, granted her a decree.

ATHLETES PAY THEIR WAY BY STOKING

American Collegians "Go Broke" in England, Where They Were Honored.

University Girls on Vessel Smuggle Dainties Down to Them.

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—From ducal halls to forecastle was the range of experience traveled by two Dartmouth College athletes—M. Arthur Meyers of Chicago and George Read of Boston, who returned from England yesterday on the steamer Canadian.

The boys worked their way to England as cattlemen to take part in the English athletic games. Their prowess in sports at Dartmouth, Eng., attracted the attention of the Earl of Dartmouth, who, when he heard that they were from Dartmouth College, named for one of his ancestors, insisted that they should spend the week-end with him as his guests.

After leaving their titled host, however, the boys met hard luck. At London they lost all their money and had to pawn rings, watches and stickpins to buy tickets to Liverpool, where their prayers for a passage home were answered with berths as stokers in the engine room of the Canadian. The boys were not used to the fare of the sea and when their plight became known to some college girls in the first cabin various tid-bits were smuggled down to them. Saturday night they were unable to sleep in the saloon and were dancing with some of their college girl friends when found by the ship's officers and ordered below in the interest of ship discipline.

TAKES FIRST VACATION IN A QUARTER CENTURY

SAN MATEO, Sept. 8.—Chief George A. Bartlett, of the San Mateo Fire Department, and the oldest fire chief in the State in point of age, is in service, left yesterday on his first vacation in twenty-six years. To roam at will, to cast line and fish.

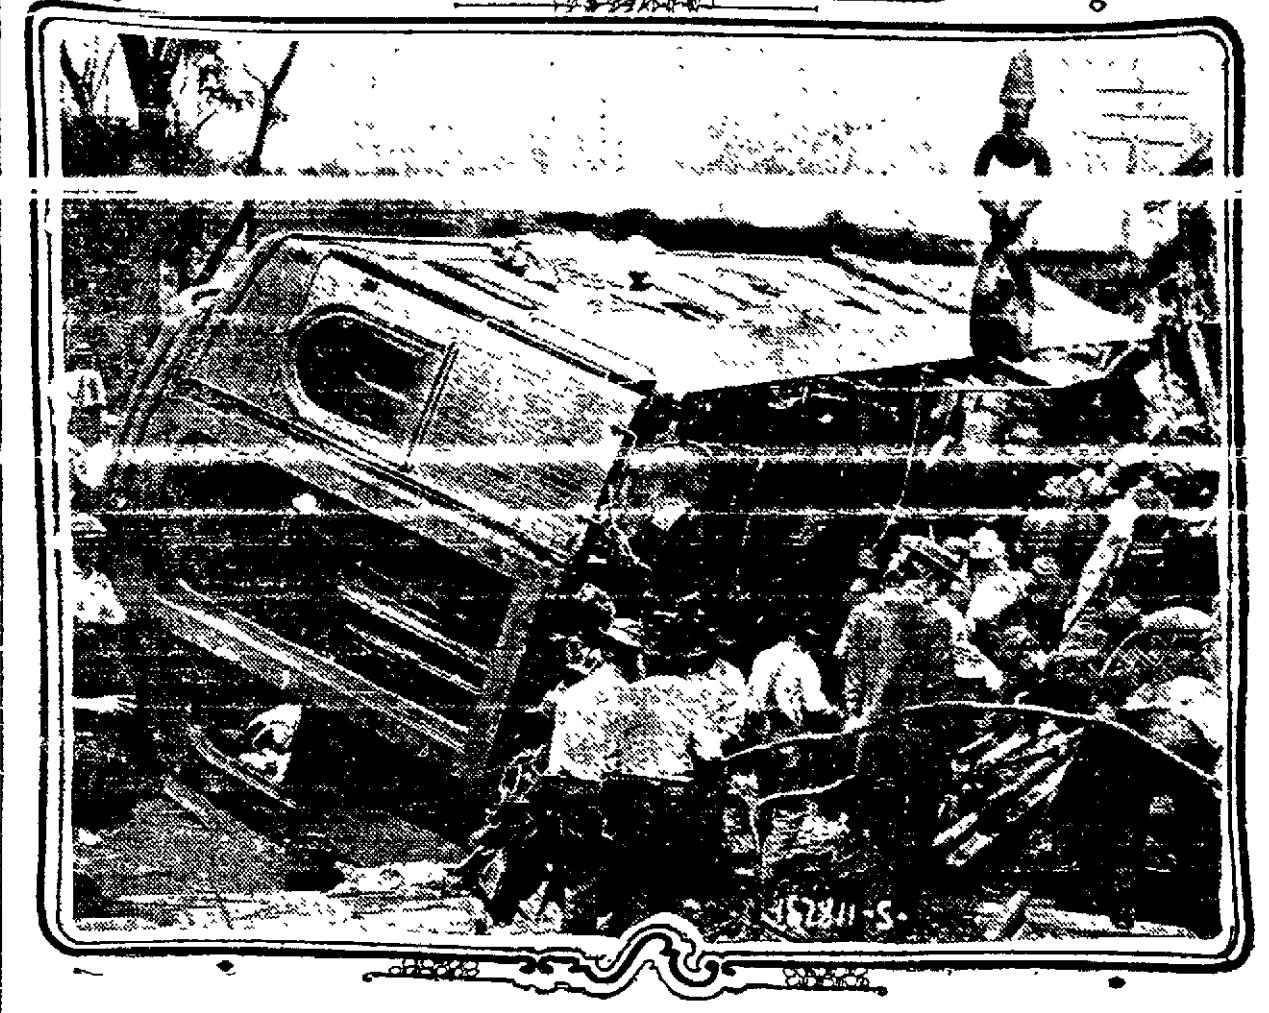

Chief Bartlett has missed only two fires. He has led his men bravely and has a long list of courageous acts to his credit. He has in all, with the aid of his men, put out 2251 fires. A coincidence was the fact that during 1906, the year of San Fran's big fire, San Mateo did not have any single fire.

Chief Bartlett was instrumental in the organization of this city's fire department in 1887. At that time the equipment consisted of a few feet of hose and a few buckets. A year later Bartlett was chosen, and has never fled the office.

MAY PASS THE TARIFF BILL TONIGHT

Senate Expected to Take Action Before Adjournment Today.

La Follette Takes Floor for First General Discussion.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The Democratic tariff bill introduced by Senator La Follette five months ago and passed by the Senate four months ago, may pass the Senate before adjournment tonight. When the measure was called up early today by Chairman Simmons of the Finance Committee, it was the intention to hold the Senate in session until a vote was reached. Leaders on both sides agreed that the bill surely would be reported back to the House some time tomorrow. In conference the measure is expected to be debated less than two weeks.

After some preliminary discussion today, Senator La Follette took the floor for his first general discussion of the bill, having deferred his amendments to the wool and cotton schedules until the climax of the debate. He expected to talk about four hours.

Senator Norris, Progressive Republican, called up his tax amendment, although he believed the time had come when the government should go further and not allow possessors of great wealth like the Astors, "to take what does not belong to them from the people."

Senator Clapp, Progressive Republican, said he would support the amendment, although he believed the time had come when the government should go further and not allow possessors of great wealth like the Astors, "to take what does not belong to them from the people."

CASE OF VINCENT ASTOR.

Senator Norris took the case of Vincent Astor to illustrate the effect of his amendment. The younger Astor, he said, did nothing to accumulate the fortune of $30,000,000 he received from his father's estate.

"Under this proposed amendment," said Senator Norris, "the tax Vincent Astor would pay to the government would be $43,799,500. He would then have more than $26,000,000 tipped into his lap, a fortune made by millions of people in the United States, a fortune for the accumulation of which he did not sweat a drop, a fortune accumulated without an effort of his hand or brain. Such a tax would not be robbery Mr. Astor."

AMENDMENT LOST.

Senator Dillingham's amendment to turn back each state's income tax for good roads, with the provision that each state appropriate a like amount, was lost. Foreign books were returned to the free list as originally provided.

Senator Smoot moved to reduce the duty of cut but not set diamonds, pearls and other precious stones from 20 per cent to 10 per cent. He said that he would not object to the high duty were it possible to collect it and prevent smuggling.

The Senator held in his hand eight pearls which he said cost $18,000.

"I move the Senator pass them around," said Senator Reed.

The amendment was lost.

Billy Fitz Says, Says he:

McCREDIE'S contention that the 1913 Portland team is the best ever developed this side of the Rocky mountains is willing to believe that McCredie's band of athletes, as they are playing right now, can take the measure of any team in the American Association, and would give some of the Big League clubs an awful tussle. In addition to the natural talent of the players, the Portland club is enjoying a phenomenal amount of luck. They are getting all the breaks with unfailing regularity and are playing with a confidence that is one of their biggest assets. No lead is big enough to make the Ducks nervous. They know that they have the greatest bunch of twirlers in the league behind them, and they know that sooner or later in the game they will "get" to the pitcher opposing them.

With that idea firmly in their mind, they are simply irrepressible. Portland fans have every reason to be proud of the 1913 Ducks, for they are a grand team and they are playing grand baseball.

The fact that the Oaks were simply outclassed last week is small satisfaction to the home fans, who are still trying to see ball games and were forced to burlap. The baseball public is what keeps the game alive. The fans' money pays the salary of the baseball player and the latter ought to keep that fact in mind. If he doesn't, the fan is likely to grow tired of paying out his silver, and when that time comes the ball players have to grow at work.

merely remark this in passing for the benefit of one or two Oakland veterans who became disgusted yesterday morning, and deliberately loafed on the job. No condition or stage of a baseball game justifies a player in "laying down" so long as there are spectators there who have paid their money for the privilege of seeing a ball game and a good example of two teams each trying to win by every means within their power throughout the nine innings.

About the only satisfaction that fans had in the morning game in Oakland was achieved by the 10th inning, beginning at the Oakland team. That team was so small that the enormous side of efforts of the Oaks, or lack of effort, appealed to the crowd and the grandstand and bleachers cracked and roared in ironic applause. It was hardly a pleasant spectacle for President Leavitt to face, or for Manager Miltz either, though the latter seems to have reached the stage when the figures that nothing he can do will pull them together.

The Portland club banged the ball at a .294 clip last week, making seven hits one afternoon and eight yesterday. On the other games, the hits ranged in between these two figures. Bill Rodgers led his team mates with a batting average of .407.

J. Cal Ewing will probably sign up Hub Pernoll today, believing that the former Oak may pitch better to Walter Schmidt than to the catchers he has been facing. Hub's chief fault is lack of control on his cross-fire. If he succeeds in getting that down, he will still enjoy many a game on the Coast League. Ewing needs another southpaw in addition to Jess Baker and Harry Ables.

Harry Ables demonstrated that he has returned to winning form again, when he outpitched Hi West yesterday afternoon but found that his team mates could do nothing behind him. Oakland had men on bases all through the game, but could not score a run across. In the ninth inning, an error by Helling on a hard chopper turned one out and paved the way for the second. It was a terrible game for Ables to lose, and he was very much disgusted.

Overall and Fanning, the two best bats on the Seal club, were walked yesterday by the on-rushing Tigers, the score of 2-2 being rolled up twice. Ferguson and Koester were the winning pitchers.

The Angels were rolled in Sacramento just twice yesterday. Gregory being knocked out of the box in the morning, was very much disgusted.

The Angels were rolled in Sacramento just twice yesterday. Gregory being knocked out of the box in the morning, Bert Coy showed the crowd a fielding stunt in the afternoon game that made everyone actually rub their eyes. He robbed Clemons of a hit in the third by leaping back and after half fall the applause was long delayed because no one could believe Bert actually had got the ball.

A new season's record. Time of afternoon game, 1:17.

Charlie Seitz, the utility infielder, secured by Oakland from San Antonio, was badly hurt in the morning game, and he had replaced Clemens in left field. Seitz made a desperate attempt to trap a foul and plunged head long into the bleacher railing. He was knocked unconscious and it is feared that his back is so badly wrenches that he will be out of the game for several weeks.

DELTA ASS'N IN ANNUAL ASSEMBLY

CAPTAIN RETURNS WITHOUT BOATS

Selected Bad Day to Secure Cutters for Alameda Play-grounds.

MIDDLE RIVER, Sept. 8.—The Delta Association of California held its annual general assembly here today. The experiment farm of the agricultural department is located here, and was inspected by the visitors and members of the association. The farm is a laboratory for the study of various diseases and plant diseases and insect enemies.

The superintendent, Mr. Shear, made a report very admiringly to the Delta land owners. Two-thirds of the vegetables in the state are grown in the Delta. Mr. Shear demonstrated the progressive decrease in the yield, and its causes. The Delta Association's present work is being exterminated by fungus diseases and insect enemies unknown here. Therefore the greater need to use the experiment farm in treating the causes of lower yield here. Addresses were also delivered by Professors Madson and Gilmore on the use of lime soils and crop rotation. The President, Mr. John P. Irish, enforced the need of organization of the Delta land owners and gave in detail the important work done by the association.

After launch trips on Middle river and the bayous bordering the reclaimed tracts, a small audience was enjoyed and an all-round good time was had. The attendance was large and every visitor was pledged to do missionary work to increase the membership of the Delta Association.

FIND LOST WILL CUTS OFF SON

O. F. Wright $30,000 Poorer Than He Believed Himself.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—By the discovery of a lost will, written six years ago, Otto F. Wright is $30,000 poorer than he believed himself yesterday. Chester F. Wright, father of Otto Wright, was supposed to have died intestate, but in the will found today he named his aged mother as his sole heir, and cut off his son, who had opposed him in a family quarrel. The will was round hidden in a bundle of old papers.

DENIES FAVORING SALE OF LIQUOR TO WOMEN

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 5, 1913. Editor Tribune—Dear Sir: Under the caption "Reputable Saloons favored by Center," in your paper dated September 1, 1913, I was reported as having made a speech before the Melrose Civic Center, and in which you quoted me as saying something to the effect: "The plan of allowing cafes to serve liquor only with meals is absurd. Also this attempt to stop the sale of liquor to women. When I want a drink of beer, I want it. I've a right to it, and if I'm spending my own money for it, it's nobody's business but mine. Tired auto parties want refreshment. They stop at a cafe. They don't want to eat a course dinner. They want beer."

While, as a matter of fact I made no speech whatever, I never drink beer and therefore cannot but resent the speech you wrote for me, as it neither expresses my ideas or expressions concerning this question.

Thanking you to make this correction, I am
Respectfully yours,
MRS. A. C. CHRISTENSEN.

LARGE ORCHARD IS SWEPT BY CLOUDBURST

OROVILLE, Sept. 8—A disastrous cloudburst washed away a fortune for Niet West, one of the largest ranch owners in Lassen county in a few hours. It practically ruined a ranch valued at $40,000, destroying the orchard and carrying away buildings except the dwelling, which was situated on a knoll. Of a band of seventy-five horses all were killed but two. A number of cattle, hogs and chickens were also drowned. All tools and farm implements were carried away and the wreck of one was found at Constantia twelve miles away.

West was the only man on the ranch at the time. While working around the house he heard the roar of rushing waters, climbed on the roof to discover the cause and thereby saved his life.

A few minutes later a wall of water twenty-six feet high swept over the lower ground, carrying everything in its path to destruction. The marooned man was compelled to hold to his precarious refuge until 3 o'clock the following morning.

LATEST NEWS FROM OUTSIDE TOWNS

ALMOST CREMATES HIMSELF IN LOT

Clothes Afire, Rescued Salamander Completes Blissfull Slumbers in Jail.

FITCHBURG, Sept. 8—"There's a man trying to cremate himself on a vacant lot here," was a telephone message, early yesterday, which brought Lieutenant Fred Schroder of the Melrose police force out to the scene in a hurry. Schroder

Continuing, "To this end

SAN JOSE, Sept. 8—In an automobile there he found a man lying in a lot surrounded by burning grass. The leaping flames had set fire to part of the salamander's clothing. The Lieutenant put out the fire and conveyed the man into the city jail. The man said his name was L. Wanamaker that after a celebration he had laid down in the lot, tried to light a cigarette, set the grass on fire instead, and had fallen asleep. He was booked on a charge of making it absolutely impossible to repeat such grossness. I say let the town of Hayward go into the water business now."

Principal Mabrey voices the opinion of many of the citizens in regard to control of the water system. The San Lorenzo Water company through Superintendent E. S. Warren has signified its willingness to dispose of its water part at a reasonable figure to the Hayward municipality. While the proposal has not yet been taken up officially by the town trustees, it has been the subject of much talk and it is probable that a meeting may be held to discuss the question. The San Lorenzo Water company has promised to lay out a large sum of money in improving its system, and has already made a start in this direction by laying a 6-inch main on upper B street

FIFTY YEAR DEBT IS PAID WITH INTEREST

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Sept. 8—Le Grande Jackson, now nearly 90, a jeweler of this place, has faith in human nature now because of an experience Saturday, when he was visited by a stranger who insisted on his taking $5 with interest, which had accrued for the last 50 years.

While Jackson did not understand what the money was for, he accepted it, and this was then given as the explanation. His caller was Samuel Hitchcock of California, who has amassed wealth in the gold fields, and who returned to pay back $5 which he borrowed 50 years ago from Alfred Jackson, brother of Le Grande. Hitchcock found that Alfred Jackson was dead, and looking up Le Grande, the only living heir, he paid the old debt.

The money was loaned at a time when Hitchcock needed help to get West.

OLD ADOBE HOUSE IS PURCHASED BY WOMEN

SAN JOSE, Sept. 8—Through the agency of the Santa Clara Women's club, the oldest adobe building in Santa Clara county is to be preserved. The officers choose of the building from the Estate of Thomas brothers. A lot 40x154 feet, on which the adobe stands, goes with the building. The price was not announced.

Built by Indians about 120 years ago, the adobe for many years was an Indian rendezvous. They made it their sleeping place in mission-to-mission journeys.

Friars probably directed the building of the house. During the Mexican occupation it became a famous social center for this valley, and many a merry dance has been held within its walls.

Of late years it has fallen to decay, and the Women's club will immediately make repairs necessary to prevent its falling to pieces. They hope to establish a museum there, and will ask the Santa Clara fire department for banners made of Santa Cruz by public spirited pioneer women.

Less than 10 minutes from the business center by either of two car lines—Lake Shore or Fourth Ave. THERE ARE TWO NEW PUBLIC SCHOOLS WITHIN A BLOCK OF HADDON HILL. Excellent playgrounds close by. The new crosstown drive Excelsior Boulevard starts at Haddon Hill, at the east junction of the Lake Merritt Boulevards.

The climate is ideal.

EVERY PURCHASER IS ABSOLUTELY PROTECTED. Each lot is wisely restricted as to the character and location of the building to be erected upon it.
